Our Dear Friends,

As you are all painfully aware, this on-going Covid-19 pandemic continues to disrupt all aspects of our lives, both business and personal. Made worse by the selfish acts of a small number of the population who do their darndest to keep us locked-down.

For yet another year we have been unable to get our team over from Melbourne to get the heavy-duty part of the installation of the Wurlitzer organ underway. Our own Neil Warrington and his team of helpers have accomplished a couple of little jobs, such as installing the heavy wooden swell shutters across the openings to the organ chambers, on the back wall of the stage.

We had planned a Club afternoon and video show for Sunday November 7 at the Playhouse Theatre, but the rules for gatherings under Covid Levels make it unlikely that the theatre could be available, so we have now rescheduled this for February or March next year, and hopefully happier times.

*It is a trifle early but,
on behalf of all the team,
may we wish you joy and happiness for the festive season.*
